

January 2025 Fire Blanket FAQs

What is the TPC Fire Blanket Program?

The TPC Fire Blanket Program is part of TPC's ongoing efforts to provide our policyholders with tools and resources to help prevent devastating home fires.

TPC has partnered with Mart Cobra to distribute a FREE Fire Blanket to new policyholders* as a simple, effective way to suffocate flames caused by grease fires, stovetop mishaps, and other common kitchen accidents.

Who is eligible to receive a Mart Cobra Fire Blanket?

As of January 2025, the TPC Fire Blanket Pilot Program is only available in Pennsylvania. To be eligible to receive a Fire Blanket, you must have an active owner-occupied homeowners or condo policy from The Philadelphia Contributionship.

As part of the pilot program, all policyholders with a new owner-occupied homeowners or condo policy in Pennsylvania effective on or after September 1, 2024 will receive a Fire Blanket.

I have recently written new homeowners or condo policies in Pennsylvania. Will those policyholders receive a Fire Blanket?

Any policyholders with a new owner-occupied homeowners or condo policy in Pennsylvania with an effective date on or after September 1, 2024 will receive a Fire Blanket. The Fire Blanket will be mailed by Mart Cobra directly to the insured's address.

Going forward, any new owner-occupied homeowners or condo policyholders in Pennsylvania will receive a Fire Blanket approximately 90 days after their policy becomes active.

What's included in the Fire Blanket package?

Policyholders will receive one 40" x 40" Mart Cobra Fire Blanket, along with a flyer that explains the TPC Fire Blanket Program and how to use their new Fire Blanket.

What is a Fire Blanket?

A fire blanket is a simple yet crucial tool in fire safety, designed specifically to smother small fires before they escalate. Made from woven fire-resistant material, fire blankets are capable of cutting off oxygen, effectively extinguishing the flames.

Are Fire Blankets reusable?

Mart Cobra Fire Blankets are single use only. If a TPC Policyholder has used their fire blanket, they can contact TPC at marketing@1752.com for a free replacement.
